EXPERIENCE

HIGHLIGHTED TECHNICAL PROJECTS

Full-stack Web Developer

Remote
May 2022 – Present

Geek The Blog – Geek The Blog is a blog dedicated to all fans of the geek world. You can post something geeky, comment on what another geek posted or just give a geeky like to a post. It is a Full-stack application with a REST API with CRUD methods based on a PostgreSQL database. In this project, you can see that I'm able to design, build and manage SQL databases effectively and efficiently.

- Built with: Ruby, Ruby on Rails, TailwindCSS, Rest Restful API.

My Budget – MyBudget is a full stack application with a REST API with crud methods also based on a PostgreSQL database. You can keep a record of all your expenses and nest them into categories. This way you can control your finances better and plan better to accomplish your goals. Using efficient SQL queries was fundamental in this project.

- Built with: Ruby, Ruby on Rails, TailwindCSS, Rest Restful API.

British Classic Meals – A selection of the most favorite and famous British recipes. Things you can do in this website: check the list of meals, like the recipe, view the complete recipe including list of ingredients, view comments of other users, leave your comment about the meal.

- Built with: JavaScript, CSS, HTML, Webpack, Rest Restful API.

WISE UP
